

GROUNDING DECISION-MAKING IN THE Mission of God

This video and discussion guide invites you to consider one of the ways in which Scripture gives us a model for how we make decisions. It starts with paying attention to how God keeps turning up among unexpected people and in unexpected places. Consider what this could mean for you as a leadership team as you participate in God's mission.

VIDEO LINK: www.themissionalnetwork.com/grounding-decision-making

Discussion Questions

1. Leadership that participates in God's mission. After watching this video, what do you think this means?
2. What kinds of people do we tend to pay attention to and who might we be ignoring?
3. What might be some of the assumptions we make about how God is at work in our congregation?

Decision-Making
ASSESSMENT

LEADERSHIP TEAM

Get a picture of what's driving your planning and decision-making and consider some next steps for shaping your work in response to God's invitation.

Learn more:
themissionalnetwork.com/leadership